

October 2024

DATE	TITLE AND PRESENTERS	LOCATION
Oct 10	“Introduction to Buprenorphine: Pharmacology, Safety, and Up-to-date Prescribing Practices in the Age of Fentanyl. Addiction Medicine Series Part 1” with Nicholas Gallagher, DO, Director, MaineGeneral Addiction Medicine (Please note that this activity qualifies for 1 credit of the 3 CME credit requirement for opioid medication education found in P.L 2015, Chapter 488. Maine's legislation to address the opioid drug abuse crisis and 1 credit hour towards the 8 hours of DEA MATE training)	ACH Conference Room 3 &amp; Online via Teams
Oct 17	“The Relationship of Medical Professionals with the Disability Process” with Edward R. Ringel, MD	ACH Conference Room 3 &amp; Online via Teams
Oct 24	“Regional Trends in Tick Borne Illnesses” with Devon Myles, Maine CDC Epidemiologist	ACH Conference Room 3 &amp; Online via Teams
Oct 31	“Regional Trends in Mosquito Borne Illnesses” with Devon Myles, Maine CDC Epidemiologist	ACH Conference Room 3 &amp; Online via Teams
To save a seat for limited in-person attendance at ACH Conference 3 or request the MS Teams link please register using this link: https://www.mainegeneral.org/classes-events/event-results/?topicId=61 For detailed objectives for the above trainings please refer to the MaineGeneral Intranet Site What’s Happening section or contact the MaineGeneral Medical Library at library@mainegeneral.org or 626-1325.		